NAI Friedland Names Anthony J. Lembeck Chief Operational Officer

NAI Friedland Realty, a full service commercial real estate firm serving metropolitan New York, has appointed Anthony J. Lembeck, former executive vice president and Industrial Division head, as chief operational officer (COO). The announcement was made by Robert Friedland, the firm's founder and chairman.

Lembeck joined NAI Friedland Realty in 1995, after retiring from the practice of real estate law in Manhattan. Lembeck's main focus at Friedland has been on industrial transactions.

In addition to real estate, Lembeck has run a textile importing company, worked as a theatre producer in New York City and owned a boys' sports summer camp in Maine. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of Temple Shaaray Tefila in Bedford Corners, N.Y. and is on the Board of Directors of Family Services of Westchester, a not-for-profit agency serving the needs of county residents. For the past 16 years, he has helped to run Camp Viva, a one-week sleep away camp for families affected by HIV/Aids.

NAI Friedland Realty Inc. is located at 656 Central Park Ave. in Yonkers and can be reached at 914-968-8500 or www.friedlandrealty.com.
